

APPENDIX 1

Adobe Opt-in Nomination Form

Statement on Opt-In Provisions:

In accordance with the Code’s guidance on signatories nominating to report on certain provisions in the Code, Adobe has reported on those measures that are “proportionate and relevant” to our business. We also have taken into consideration the context in which our products and services can potentially contribute to harm that is posed by instances of disinformation and misinformation that are present on online platforms.

Although Adobe is not a social media company, we recognize the harm that can come from maliciously motivated actors using our creative tools to promulgate inaccurate online content.

Therefore, we have opted into provisions of the Code that focus on technology that we are developing and promoting that will assist consumers in detecting authentic online content. Our focus in mitigating harms that can come from the spread of misinformation and disinformation is on providing digital platforms with tools that they can offer to their users so they can determine the provenance, or source of the content. Adobe’s motivation in signing onto the Code is to decrease the potential harm and influence of inauthentic content online.
